

Goals of the CLCP

- ❖ To secure the commitment of all leading public and private community organizations to the literacy campaign.
- ❖ To create and sustain public demand for a literate community.
- ❖ To achieve new enrollment annually and retain existing enrollment to the extent necessary to achieve the designation, Certified Literate Community.
- ❖ To assess and document progress and to recognize publicly the incremental economic, social and cultural benefits of literacy skills improvements achieved within the community.
- ❖ To develop a program that is capable of being sustained for the community to achieve and exhibit its ability to maintain the designation, Certified Literate Community.

Mission Statement:

The mission of the Certified Literate Community Program is to mobilize every resource available to a community into a literacy campaign that functions within state certification guidelines and will result in a literate community.

In 2014 CLCPs secured over $2.4 million for literacy through fundraisers, grants, foundations and annual giving campaigns; plus in-kind resources and contributions in excess of $2.4 million.

In 2014 CLCP communities served 22,735 Adult Education students who improved their literacy levels or obtained a GED diploma.
