

Certified Literate Community Program of Georgia

CLCPs MAKE A DIFFERENCE

CLCP chapters throughout the state not only believe solidly in the foundation of their program, but also go above and beyond to be of help wherever it is needed. CLCPs have sponsored or provided:

- GED testing scholarships
- Postsecondary scholarships
- GED graduations and receptions
- Volunteer and tutor trainings
- Student and volunteer recognition celebrations
- Adult Education class attendance incentive programs
- Stay in School campaigns
- School supplies donations and “Backpacks for Education”
- Computer training and parenting classes
- Book donations and distribution
- Sponsorships of academic essay and drawing contests
- Recognition of academic achievements in public schools
- Establishment of libraries in shelters, intervention centers and correctional facilities
- Public awareness events
- Health Literacy and Financial Literacy workshops
- Adult Education classroom space and materials and equipment for classes
- Adult Education teacher salaries
- Childcare and transportation for students
- Support of the Ferst Foundation for Childhood Literacy
- The Dictionary Project for 3rd graders
- The Thesaurus Project in middle and high schools
- Summer reading programs
- Partnerships with civic clubs and others to promote reading and literacy
- Community involvement
- Marketing and advertising