

*Community Uplifted:
Promoting Economic Growth through Adult and Community Education*

The Greatest Barrier to Economic Growth and Development is the Absence of a Literate Workforce

Please join us Friday, November 9th for Georgia's fifth Community Uplifted Symposium. In just a few hours you will gain a better understanding of the importance of Adult Education and how illiteracy impacts our community. We are honored to have a variety of highly experienced speakers sharing their time with us.

Speakers Include:

Ron Jackson—Commissioner, Technical College System of Georgia

Josephine Reed-Taylor—Deputy Commissioner, Technical College System of Georgia

Beverly E. Smith—Assistant Commissioner, Technical College System of Georgia

Mary Flanders—Board Member, Technical College System of Georgia

The Honorable Judge L. Warner Kennon—Presiding Judge, Juvenile Court, Columbus

Billie Izard—Executive Director, Certified Literate Community Program of Georgia

J. Robert "Bob" Jones—President, Columbus Technical College

Jerry "Pops" Barnes—City Councilman, Columbus, GA

Sally Jordan—Retired Director, MCSD Adult Education and EvenStart Programs
