

*You are cordially invited NOT to attend
Lumpkin Literacy's 2017*

Not-at-all-Ball

Not to be held on Saturday, March 11, 2017

By not attending, you won't have to:

- Drink cheap wine & eat bad food with plastic forks
- Talk to loud neighbors and pretend to like them more than a speeding ticket
- Wonder if there's enough in your checking account to cover the silent auction items
- Consider whether your friend's outfit is your recent thrift store donation

Instead, allow us to: purchase books, pay testing fees, fund scholarships and provide materials needed to help residents of Lumpkin County obtain a GED, continue their education at Lanier Tech, or learn English as a Second Language.

Please DON'T show up, but please DO support Lumpkin Literacy, with your financial attendance. 100% of your donation is tax deductible and we're 100% volunteer so all goes to programs!

P. S. Justin Timberlake and Lady Ga-ga also won't be going!
